

*The Society
for Hellenic-Iranian Studies*

Academic Committee

EVANGELOS VENETIS

Biography

Dr. Evangelos Venetis is the founder and director of the Society for Hellenic-Iranian Studies. He is currently a Senior Research Associate in Islamic and Iranian studies at the School of Asian, African and Amerindian Studies, the University of Leiden, the Netherlands. He received his first degree in history (1999) and an MA in medieval history (Sasanian-Byzantine diplomatic relations, 2001) from the University of Ioannina, Greece. He holds a PhD in Islamic and Iranian Studies from the Department of Islamic and Middle Eastern Studies, the University of Edinburgh, UK (2006). Venetis has published various articles in scientific journals and he is the co-author of the Bibliographika Sasanika, vol. 1 (Costa Mesa – CA, 2007). His book The Iskandarnama (Book of Alexander): An analysis of an anonymous Persian prose romance will be published soon. His research interests focus on classical Persian literature, history and Sasanian Iran while his special research area is that of Graeco-Iranian Studies (www.geocities.com/evenetis).